

Parker is 15 years old. She loves reading a book. So to speak she is really a bookworm. When someone wants to reading a book , them take Parker's opinion and information. Parker wants to find a platform which she can quote the books , create a book reading plan , commenting book the she read. She discovered bookabitual with advice from one of her friend.

Bookabitual is a social book sharing application. You can sign up with any your mail. After the signing up , you can add books ,that you read , will read , was not finish yet , in your profile. You can like and comment the page of boks. Additionally you search books and other users in search part of the application. You can like and comment in sharing of other users.